CH Wolf River's Shogun (Shogie) was my first show dog. He came to us from Wolf River Samoyeds (Wisconsin) owned by Kay Hallberg. Kay has spent most of her adult life breeding to maintain the working Samoyed. She started mostly out of a White Way-based bloodline. White Way was owned by Agnes Mason. White Spirit Samoyeds are honored to have come from a Wolf River bloodline, and will strive to maintain the same standard of breeding.

Shogun is my foundation stud dog. He is very beautiful with correct structure and movement, 55% leg length, good angulations, large hare feet, an almost perfect rear, single tracking, side-gait, and great reach and drive. His long neck blends into shoulders, and attractive head. Shogie has a look-at-me personality. He walks into a room talking to anyone who will listen. He will be 12 years old on July 10, 2013 and is keeping up with his four year old daughter, Malia, playing tug-of-war every morning and running through the house with toys.

Shogun has sired four litters. So far, there are six champions; one more is just starting in the conformation ring. He has reproduced himself in many of his sons and grandsons, and has outstanding daughters. Shogie the dog of my heart!!
